DALBY MARKET REPORT

17th April 2024

Total Yarding -5011

GDL -1425

Numbers increased this week as it has started to dry out after significant rains the last few weeks. The usual panel of buyers were present and operating. The large supply of cattle seen spread across saleyards this week saw prices soften, particularly in heavy cattle and second grade cattle. Cows were back to around 200c/kg for good heavy weight cows with isolated sales to 220c/kg. Feeder steers and heifer were both back as much as to 20c/kg on average with heavy good heavy steers making around 330c/kg and heifers around 270c/kg with your content type cattle softer again. Weaner cattle sold to mixed demand with the best pens of cattle selling firm on last week but average prices down.

Next week GDL are selling 3rd.
